

An aerial photograph of a coastal area with a proposed road and contour lines. The road, shown as a dashed line, runs diagonally from the top left towards the bottom right. It features a roundabout near the bottom center. The terrain is marked with white contour lines and numerical labels (10, 20, 30, 40, 50, 60, 70) indicating elevation. A large body of water is on the right side. The area includes residential developments, tennis courts, and a beach on the left. A grey rectangular area is visible on the right side of the map.
